Special dispatch to the Chronicle.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 2.—The campaign which closed to-night has been a series of paradoxes, bringing alternate hopes and fears to each party. The result in Maine was a thunder-bolt to the republicans. The western elections stunned the democrats, and, as I write, at midnight, it would seem that the sentiment and principles that created the tidal wave of a fortnight ago has no doubt swelled through every northern state to the Pacific ocean. It is yet too early to give more than well based estimates of the result in different northern states. There is, however, no reason to doubt that Garfield has carried every pivotal state by surprisingly large majorities. Noting deficits at this hour is heard from the Pacific slope, but the republicans claim that two of the states, with the same confidence which they have shown in New England. S. W. Dorsey, secretary of the republican national committee gives the following estimate of the general result: In view of the fact that the New York Sun concedes New York to Garfield, that both Hendrick and English abandon the contest in Indiana and are so legging their friends, Mr. Dorsey's figures are evidently correct. The democratic majority in New York city is about 350,000 in Brooklyn 100,000 and in the city of New York 100,000. Four years ago Tilden crossed the Harlem river from these points, with 72,000 majority. Garfield's majority in the state will reach 400,000. Massachusetts increases its majority of four years ago to 60,000. The late fusion in Maine is reversed to a republican gain of 25,000. New Jersey is doubtful and has possibly gone democratic by a great vote. Connecticut is republican by 25,000 to 40,000. Pennsylvania gives Garfield 40,000; Ohio 80,000 to 100,000 and Indiana about 70,000. The republican majority in Michigan county, Ohio, Cincinnati, has more than doubled since the October election. The latest advices indicate a loss of four republican congressmen in New York and a gain of one in Boston. L. O. Morse, the wealthy clothier, being defeated. The tenth Kentucky Congressional district is carried by Thomas, republican, over Phelan, the sitting member. Delaware and Florida are also claimed by the republicans, but with what show of reason it is yet too early to learn. Philadelphia dispatches report a riot on Broad street at the American club, but no particulars can be given. The election in this city passed off quietly. There were few arrests for illegal voting; no charges of fraud on either side. The principal streets, on which the newspaper offices and club rooms are located, are fairly jammed with cheering and yelling crowds of their respective candidates. No trouble, however, is apprehended by the police, and sober, sensible people are glad that the long drawn agony is over at last.

New York, Nov. 2.—At democratic headquarters it is claimed that reports from all districts of the city show that Hancock will run 5000 ahead of his ticket in the city. It was said at the democratic national committee headquarters to-day that Grace, for mayor, and Truett, for superior court judge, were both being scratched, but it is thought they will have enough votes to carry them through. The following was received at republican national headquarters to-day:

ARREST.

A large number of arrests have been made for attempted illegal voting. A United States deputy marshal, Patrick McManus, who was arrested, charged with disorderly conduct at the polls. Police Justice Kilbrith discharged him with a reprimand.

THE WEATHER.

9:30 a. m.—With the exception of areas of light rain in Oregon, Colorado, Louisiana and eastern Texas, the weather throughout the union is clear or fair.

POLICE CAPTAINS.

Chief of Police Walling sent out an order last night to police captains instructing them not to receive or serve any warrants presented by private citizens. The chief of this was that the police were not to be used to arrest republican voters, for whom warrants had been procured by private democratic citizens. Police Commissioner French informed the captains that this order must be obeyed. At a later hour Police Commissioner Smith heard of the order, and without consulting French sent out a message to captains, which was a virtual command not to obey Chief Walling's order. Commissioner French left the police headquarters without being aware of what Commissioner Smith had done.

TELL IT TO THE MARINES.

United States Commissioner Allen, in Brooklyn, last night, issued warrants for the arrest of 35 United States marines in the barracks on Flushing avenue for illegal registration and the men were taken into custody. The men were registered in the third district of the twentieth ward, supposing they had secured residence there and would be entitled to vote. As it was not their intention to violate the law they were paroled until Wednesday. There are fifteen more to be arrested.

It may be a legal holiday there is a general suspension of business. Up to noon a full vote had been polled, but parties bringing out the early, superstitious Walling's order to the police not to serve warrants for illegal voting created much excitement among the democrats. At 10 o'clock, John J. Jackson, accompanied by several democratic leaders and counsel, entered the superintendent's office, handed him forty-seven warrants, and directed him to have them served, at the same time exhibiting an order of arrest for the superintendent if he refused. At 10:30 a. m. the superintendent stated he would have the warrants served, and the party left.

KINGS COUNTY.

The election is progressing quietly in Kings county. The ballots are being received at the rate of one per minute. The voters are being questioned very closely by the supervisors. The republicans are polling a heavy vote through democratic wards, but holding their own standing on probable democratic majority in the county ranges all the way from 9000 to 21,500. In New York city upwards of fifty arrests of persons charged with illegal registration were made this morning upon warrants handed by Commissioner Daveport, who with other United States commissioners, held court in the federal building. All were discharged.

ASSAULT.

Deputy Marshal Smith was arrested, charged with assaulting the chief marshal of the fourth assembly district, and with drunkenness and neglect of duty he was held in a $1,000 bail.

A. U. S. D. M.

United States Deputy Marshal Frank Miller was arrested, charged with protecting and allowing illegal voters to deposit ballots. Justice Kilbrith remanded him for examination. Richard W. Webb, John J. Jackson, Solomon and Samuel Griffin, republican colored men, were held to answer by Justice Duffy for alleged illegal registration, voted subsequently and were at once arrested. Beis were made at noon to-day on the general result of the election. Garfield would be elected, and in some cases $100 to $300 was offered. The bet was even that Garfield carries New York by 15,000 to 20,000 majority. The betting is two to one that Grace would be elected mayor, and $100 to $50 was offered on Ben Wood's election over Nicholas Mueller.

Eleven towns in New York state give the democrats a gain of three and the republicans a gain of 867.

The following dispatch was received to-day at the headquarters of the republican national committee:

FREE BALLOT.

Summersville, S. C., Nov. 2.—To Hon. M. Jewell: All the polls in the republicans strongholds have been closed against us in this section. Does this give the democratic declaration of a free ballot and a fair count? Answer, W. F. MYERS.

An answer will be sent on the return of Marshal Jewell to the city.

An evening paper says: Up to 11 o'clock this morning Hancock ran ahead of the ticket in Jersey City in every district. The democratic advisory board have procured warrants for the arrest of thirty-two colored men, who were registered without giving any residence. Over ten Pullman palace cars, on the Pennsylvania railroad, deposited at the Pennsylvania railroad depot. United States Commissioner Blair decided that this was a legal residence, whereupon the democrats determined to ignore the commissioner's decision and proceeded under the state law, hence the issue of warrants.
